The itinerary to which he had committed himself and its attendant obligations were enough to have dismayed a less confident and energetle man but the colonel not only expected it, he overlapped it at every stage of his journey. In all he delivered about one hundred speeches, including both his set addresses and his imprompturals.

The first political atterance of his trip was made at Utica. N. LEADERS OF BOTH FACTIONS ARE CONFIDENT Now York, Sept. 11.-With the fe western trip, the struggle between western trip, the struggle between the sid guard and the progressives for control of the republican state convention looms larger upon the political horizon. Both sides have been conducting a quiet but effective campaign to capture delegates and the result of Tuesday's primaries in Buffalo and Rochester in a large measure will determine whether the selection by the state committee of Vice-President Sherman as temporary chalfman shall be ratified or rejected in favor of Colbe ratified or rejected in favor of Col-onel Rossevelt. Leaders of both profess confidence in their ability to win the support of a majority of the 1.015 delegates to the convention. Of the twenty of counties in which delegates have already been chosen, 132 are said to favor Sherman while 169 are credited to Booseyelt. Second and third class
